

Team tkIS India at INCAL 2019

Team tkIS India was at the fore of INCAL 2019, the 7th International Conference on Aluminium and Exhibition organised by the Aluminium Association of India (AAI) at Odisha, Bhubaneswar in the last week of January 2019.

Mr Arun Ladia, VP-Construction made a presentation on “Alumina Refinery-Engineering Consultant’s Perspective” at the Conference. He was also Chairperson for the Session. The event was also attended by Dr Nivedita Panda, DGM-Business Development.

The marquee event of the AAI was organised around the theme : Making Aluminium – Driving Growth & Development. It brought together a number of leading Global players in the alumina and related metallurgical industries.

Team tkIS India at INCAL 2019

Papers were read on a number of subjects ranging from outlook of the industry, technology, processes, equipment and services, by leading players in the field.

Images from the event...

Clockwise from top : Dr Nivedita Panda was part of the panel for Industry-Culture Round Table chaired by CMD Nalco & Secretary to Ministry of Culture, Govt of Odisha ; Mr Ladia is felicitated after his paper; Mr Ladia makes his presentation

Business Development, 18.02.2019